Robert Calvert, Cyber Security Professional at IBM

Opportunity.

Andy Bates, Director of Global Cyber Alliance

See, I want to say it's like writing a letter to my 20-year-old self, but that's not in one word.

It's just a brilliant opportunity for people in the industry to talk to 20-year-olds and give them our experience. And I just wish there was a CyberFirst programme when I was their age.
