

Video title:

Degree apprentice, Tom

Transcript:

The placements that I've been on, they don't just create you a fake task, which will go in the bin afterwards. They make you do the real work that they're also doing, which is really good because every piece of work you're doing you know that it has an impact to someone else down the line.